

To serve you with good printing. No matter what the nature of the job may be we are ready to do it at a price that will be satisfactory.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

PEOPLE READ THIS PAPER

That's why it would be profitable for you to advertise in it. If there is anything that you want the quickest and best way to supply that want is by placing an advertisement in this paper.

VOL. XLII. NO. 33.

CANFIELD MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, NOVEMBER 23, 1917.

$1.00 A YEAR

NORTH LIMA

Nov. 21—A fine concert was given Friday evening by the Saxonian Company. This was the first number of the lecture course William Hamilton Miller, lecturer and humorist, will present the second number Dec. 3.

A number of interested children, with their parents, were present Saturday at the annual county round-up of the tomato corn and potato clubs of the county, held at the M. C. A. rooms in Youngstown. A fine program was rendered, prizes were given out, and all enjoyed a free luncheon. The following young people won prizes from this township: Gladys and Florence Saurwein, first and second township prizes in the tomato club; Otto Elser, first prize in the township corn club; Donald and Gordon Beard, first and second township prizes in the potato club. Permitting the young people to enter these clubs is an excellent way of teaching practical farming, and it is hoped that more parents will urge their children to join next year.

The Ohio Conference Evangelical Association will hold the annual convention of their Sunday school and Young Peoples' Alliance in the local church, Wednesday. Sessions will be held at 8 and 8 p. m.

Ladies of the Priscilla Club will be entertained by Mrs. Will Summers Thursday afternoon. A number of the Club members have substituted Red Cross knitting for the usual fancy work taken to the meetings.

Mrs. O. E. Myers, the hostess, was the guest of friends here Sunday. Mrs. Myers is pleasantly remembered as the wife of the former pastor of the Evangelical church.

J. C. Eschelman of West Austintown was a visitor here Sunday.

Private George A. Co. B, 332nd Infantry, was home from Camp Sherman over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Beight of New Middletown were Sunday visitors at the home of Solomon Beard.

Mrs. Nora Kelly died Monday week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elton, near Morgantown. The funeral was held Tuesday with interment in North Lima. Mrs. Kelly was the grandmother of Mrs. Clarence Horn of this place.

North Lima grange will put on first and second degree work at the meeting this evening.

Second degree work will be put on in the meeting of Manitou lodge Friday night.

A. A. Dinwiddie and wife are spending a week with Pennsylvania relatives.

H. H. Myers of Cleveland attended the funeral of his sister, Miss Anna Myers at Columbiana Saturday, and spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. G. W. Heindel, in this place.

Lewis Toot of this township has purchased the private automobile of A. Coy and will take possession as soon as inventory of the stock is completed. Mr. and Mrs. Toot occupy the living apartments above the store room. Mr. Coy has not yet announced his plans for the future.

Mrs. Hattie Milley has moved to Youngstown. Her home is occupied by Mr. Gourley and family.

O. R. Heck was in Cincinnati last week. The hunting season opened last week, but not much hunting has been done here as yet.

The school will give a Thanksgiving program some evening next week.

E. M. Cover and wife entertained a number of friends and neighbors Tuesday evening in honor of the former's birthday anniversary.

Mrs. I. Hahn and daughter have been entertaining Miss Olive Rohrbach of Washington, well known here. Miss Rohrbach will soon leave for the Philippine Islands to engage in missionary work.

Mrs. A. H. Wolfgang is improving slowly, but is still confined to her home.

Jacob McCormick, who was injured last week in the wreck on the Y. & S., is still in the hospital, but is improving slowly. Others injured are getting along nicely.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Canfield of Youngstown are interested in the fact that their son, Judson, who enlisted in the engineers' corps, has sailed for France, the last word from him having been received about Nov. 1. At that time he stated that he was about to set sail.

SOUTH BERLIN

Nov. 21—Al Cook and Bert Burk of Cleveland spent Thursday and Friday with Mr. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cook. They enjoyed the time hunting rabbits.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cronick spent Thursday in Alliance and Friday in Youngstown.

Mrs. Mary Rose of Rock Creek spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cook of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Howard motored to Massillon Tuesday. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. Howard, went as far as Alliance and spent the day with friends.

Mrs. H. A. Cook and Mrs. Mary Rose spent Tuesday with W. W. Cook of West Goshen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Kling and children of Canton spent the week end with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cook.

Our people in Youngstown Tuesday were Misses Laura Cronick, Lizzie Weingart, Mrs. Eva Cook, John Cook and John Weingart.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Nov. 21—Marie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Haeck, who was seriously ill with membranous croup, is somewhat improved.

Ray Frigole is home on a vacation. Clyde Schrum was home from Camp Sherman a short time Sunday.

Frank Frigole and son Harry and daughter, Miss Dora Haden, and children of near Beloit were Sunday guests of Eli Frigole and family.

Union services will be held in the centralized school building on Thanksgiving evening. A cordial invitation is extended to denominations to attend these services.

Point heart never won fair lady, and sometimes lives to rejoice in the fact.

GREENFORD

Nov. 21—Mrs. Lydia Frederick of Washingtonville spent Wednesday visiting her sister, Mrs. Sarah Schurmerberger and calling on Mrs. J. U. Walter and Mrs. A. W. Cochel.

Mrs. Walter Hay and son Paul of Berlin, Pa., came Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. L. F. Dively, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hively of Cleveland spent last Wednesday in Greenford.

While on his way to school in his auto, with two of the teachers with him, last Wednesday morning, Prof. Hoover stopped to take Perry Huffman in. While moving some tools he had in the automobile near the ditch and when Prof. gave it a quick turn the auto turned turtle. No one was seriously hurt, but the auto top was demolished.

Mrs. Ina Kindig spent Sunday with Miss Esther Goodman.

Geneva Dively, Rena Geiz, Ruth Brightwell, Gail Cori, Wilbur Rotzel, Leroy Bush, Donald Couborn of the corn, potato and tomato boys and girls of this place attended the round-up in Youngstown last Saturday.

Mrs. L. C. Bush and son Lester Coriell of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bush were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bush.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hively are spending some time visiting relatives in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Rose joined the grange. Its regular bi-weekly meeting Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Charlton of Alliance and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Slagle and daughters were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Rezin Charlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huffman and granddaughter Virginia of Youngstown called on Mr. and Mrs. David Huffman, Sunday.

Charles Clay and Meadames Robert Bush and Jesse Clay and Misses B. F. Rhodes and Lulu Clay paid a visit to Columbus Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Stempli of Island were callers at A. W. Bush's last Saturday.

L. F. Dively and family and guest, Mrs. Walter Hay, and son Paul motored to Niles Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Grimes and daughter Helen and Mrs. Muriel McGee and Mr. Joseph Warren of Wellsview visited O. S. Walter and family of Locust Grove and spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Walter.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmor Cook and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ren Hendricks and family were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weikart of Mineral Ridge.

The primary and intermediate pupils will give a program and the high school will debate women suffrage next Wednesday night.

The J. A. McNeil hold a bazaar and chicken-pie supper in Thanksgiving night in grange hall.

Mrs. P. H. Leimbach was indisposed Monday and Tuesday. Miss Sadie Neff of Canfield was attending her.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hendricks and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bush were in Youngstown Tuesday.

Mrs. Allen Weaver, Raymond Cochel and two sons and Frank Boston of Washingtonville and Mrs. Fred Matix were initiated into the grange Tuesday night.

Mrs. and Mrs. Louis Huffman and sons of Calla were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Grover last Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Hay and son Paul leave Greenford Thursday to visit other friends and relatives in Pittsburgh and Charleroy before returning to her home in Berlin, Pa.

Rev. Carlisle Smith of Hiram will preach in the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. Everybody welcome at these services.

ELLSWORTH

Nov. 21—J. P. McNeilly is moving to the John McKinney place in the village which he bought last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Schafer entertained friends from Warren, Salem, Alliance and Jackson people last Sunday.

The small babe of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernette is somewhat improved. Mrs. Cowen is able to be out after her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bennett have gone to Youngstown to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jack.

Mrs. Mabel Young and Anna Shafer were in Canfield Tuesday.

Howard Yeager of Chillicothe was home Sunday.

Preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Hulda Gordon was home from Sebring over Sunday.

Mrs. Lola Shafer and little daughter Reta were Warren visitors Saturday afternoon.

Farmers in this neighborhood have their fall work well in hand.

A lot of people in this section will be more than pleased when the Ellsworth-Canfield road, now being built, is opened for traffic and it will not be long.

Asher Case recently had an arm broken.

A son was born a short time since to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller.

Coy Broz completed their job of macadamizing the Salem-Ellsworth road which has been open for travel a week or more.

JOHNSTONVILLE

Nov. 21—Homer Cori and Emery and Glen Pulver called on Wm. Ruppert Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and sons called on friends in Youngstown Sunday evening.

David Measmer, who is ill, is somewhat improved.

Gideon Handwork is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Mott, who spent Saturday night with her parents, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Mary DeCamp and son Ray visited Mrs. Charles Lorens, Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Crum called on Mrs. Geo. Bortmas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Greier visited friends in Youngstown Saturday.

All the baby girls in Johnstonville are getting along nicely.

Mrs. Charles Johnson spent Saturday with Mrs. Wm. Ruppert.

EAST CANFIELD STREET

Nov. 21—Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Neff of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and son visited Mrs. Mary Shafer Sunday.

O. S. Rhodes and daughter Charlotte were recent callers at Noah Lynn's on Lynn street.

Mrs. Eva Musser visited at Nathaniel Blott's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allspaugh and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Camp also spent Sunday dinner with Glenn DeCamp and family in Youngstown.

Clarence Williamson, who underwent a surgical operation Saturday in the Youngstown City hospital, is getting along nicely.

Praying next Sunday evening at Smith Corners by Rev. Jones.

Mrs. John Houser, who spent some time with her brother, George Bortmas, has returned home to Canfield.

Will Rowe is the proud owner of a Ford touring car.

Shelene Cori, Mrs. Eva Musser and daughter Charlotte called at R. F. DeCamp's Sunday evening.

Several from the street attended the funeral of Mrs. Susan Houser held at Zion Reformed church Sunday afternoon.

Mary Williamson of Quincy, Ill., is here visiting her brother, A. B. Williamson.

J. C. Allspaugh helped George Calhoun butcher Monday.

Joe Warner and H. C. Clay purchased Mrs. Rebecca Yeager's farm. Mary Shafer and granddaughter Evelyn visited Paul Matthews Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Cox of Youngstown spent Sunday afternoon at J. C. Allspaugh's.

O. S. Rhodes and daughter Charlotte spent Saturday in Niles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clay spent Sunday at Henry Lane's near Greenford.

Mrs. Lucy Snyder and daughters Mandeline and Mrs. Guy Stout and daughter June, Evelyn and William Shafer spent Sunday evening with Paul Albert and family.

Rev. Jones was in Canfield Thursday.

Wm. Gardner and family, Mrs. Mary and Evelyn Shafer called at Wm. Harding's Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Crum lost a fur scarf between her place and Youngstown some time ago. She will appreciate it very much if it is returned to her.

Mrs. Margaret Rowe assisted Mrs. Paul Albert a few days this week.

Paul Albert has had a new light plant placed in his house.

A surprise party was given Thomas Yeager, Tuesday evening in honor of his birthday. A large number were present and the evening was pleasantly spent with music and games. At midnight a delicious lunch was served.

The guests departed wishing Thomas many more happy birthdays.

MILLVILLE

Nov. 21—Mr. and Mrs. John Shepherd and son Robert of Calla spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crutchley and son Lester accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Barber and family to Wellsview to visit relatives Sunday making the trip in their automobile.

Marvin V. Howell, a former resident near this village, died at his home in Alliance Friday at the age of 59, deceased was the eldest son of the late Yerkes Howell and was born near this village. About 8 years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Garfield of Salem who survives.

Funeral services were held from his late home Sunday, interment in Hope cemetery. J. L. Egnol of Erie, Pa., spent a few hours in the village Sunday.

Misses Erma Jones and Annie Eldon were guests of friends here Saturday.

George Shepherd, who was employed in the village, has moved his family from Lisbon and will reside in Washingtonville.

Marion Cox of Salem was a Saturday guest of Lester Crutchley.

Mr. and Mrs. David Post and children of Salem spent Saturday with her sister in the village.

Mrs. Floyd Frederick has returned home much improved in health.

Abel Calladine and son Charles of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reller.

Miss Elesta Baker, instructor in our schools, visited the Calla school Monday.

John Allison and family were guests of relatives in Youngstown Sunday.

George Orr received word of the death of his brother Will of Wilkinsburg, Pa., last Thursday.

Rev. E. E. Simons of Akron spent Sunday at the home of Abram Zimmerman.

Mrs. George Carlisle of Youngstown spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. George Crutchley. Several of the young people attended the football game of soldiers in Salem Saturday afternoon.

LOCUST GROVE

Nov. 21—Clark Calvin and family of Youngstown spent Sunday at E. I. Reller's.

H. B. Hazen and family were Sunday visitors at J. D. Feicht's.

J. W. Calvin and family and Miss Iva Calvin called on friends in Columbiana one day recently.

Mrs. Henry and Elmer Calvin and son Floyd spent Monday with Mrs. Rachel Cool at Nasby's Corners.

Anthony Less and wife were in Leetonia Monday.

Quite a number from here attended the sale of Wm. Herron near Calla, Tuesday.

J. D. Cook and wife of Salem are spending a week with relatives here. Raymond Lamb and wife of Clarksville called on friends here Tuesday.

Floyd Calvin and family called on Gill Rowe and family one evening recently.

Ernest Reller and daughter Lois were in Salem Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Harmon spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. F. W. Calvin.

Our position is simply this: That when a woman wears eighteen-dollar shoes her feet come to more than her head.

ISLAND

Nov. 21—Jonas and Lizzie Knopp accompanied Israel Rohrer and wife home to Augusta county, Virginia, where they will spend some time visiting.

Harry Culp had business in Youngstown Saturday.

H. H. Calvin and family were entertained by J. N. Spanable's in East Palestine, Sunday.

Homer Culp of Greenford was here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sahli and son and Miss Elsie Carr of North Lima called on David Klingensmith and family Sunday.

B. G. Lehman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Good called at O. D. Calvin's in Youngstown Sunday afternoon.

Miss Jessie Taylor spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Wooster.

R. S. Martin and family visited I. T. Rohrer's near North Lima Sunday.

Bert Simpson and family of Mineral Ridge spent Saturday night and Sunday at S. G. McClain's.

Sam Rohrer and family of North Lima visited Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Knopp Sunday.

B. G. McGee and daughter Nellie and Miss Mabel Burns left for Camp Sherman Monday to see Arthur Burns.

Paul Messerly, who has the contract to build a house on the site of one recently burned while being occupied by Ed. Oesch on the Wetmore farm, is rapidly completing the same.

Adin and Sam Martin, Joseph Wenger and Norman Lehman called on Golegranz brothers in Franklin Square, Sunday.

Mrs. Lee Bowker and daughter Lena called at Mrs. Eli Slagle's Saturday.

Mrs. Fannie Lehman fell Sunday night, resulting in an ugly gash being cut in her head necessitating the aid of a doctor to stop the flow of blood in connecting a severed artery and sewing up the wound.

Alvin Detrow and family, Alvin Yoder, Agnes and Melissa Weaver and Mrs. Wenger were guests at Edwin Weaver's Sunday.

Fred Brudery and family spent Sunday with Joe Myers and family near Salem where 38 of the Brudery family met to spend the day with Frank Brudery who was home from Camp Sherman on a furlough.

Francis Harrold, who purchased a Willys-Knight touring car, is initiating it on a trip to Niagara Falls and other points of interest in the east, being accompanied by Alvin Knopp, Comley Carr and John Cook.

Friends to the number of 35 met at the home of Miss May Miller Thursday night to celebrate the birthday of her recent birthday. Delicious refreshments were served, and a fine time was had by all present.

NEW BUFFALO

Nov. 21—Preaching in the Lutheran church next Sunday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Macentoff left Saturday to visit friends in Lordstown and Warren. They will leave this week for their home in Coldwater, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Meeker spent Saturday and Sunday in Lordstown.

John Morris and family visited in Salem Sunday.

The Social Sisters club met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clinton Beard and started on another year with 21 members. All agreed that the past year's meetings had been a pleasure and wanted to continue in the future.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Sylvia Heinzelman; secretary, Mrs. Claude Rupert; program committee, Mrs. Fay Heinzelman and Mrs. John Morris.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Hitchcock Dec. 12. General topic, "Our Local Papers." Every member is requested to bring anything she may have to help make the program interesting.

Mrs. Margaret Piper and daughter, Mrs. Edie Wooley, of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McCracken and baby and Miss Helen Osborn of Youngstown dined at William's Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wertz went to Youngstown Sunday to spend several days.

The Beard school will have a Thanksgiving entertainment and a picnic in the schoolhouse Wednesday evening, Nov. 28.

Dogs killed a lot of sheep for Lewis Gressel Saturday night.

John Hendricks and Mrs. Sell of Salem spent Sunday at Clark Baer's.

Henry Kohler and wife of North Lima spent Sunday at Jonas Kohler's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mott and Nora and Oliver Mott spent Sunday at Dan Mellinger's in Youngstown.

H. L. Beard of Youngstown called on his mother here Sunday.

A. J. Beard and family spent Sunday afternoon in East Lordstown.

Special Thanksgiving services will be held in Paradise Reformed Church, November 25th at the regular morning hour. Everyone is urged to attend.

MINERAL RIDGE

Nov. 21—The Gleaners met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Armour Lloyd.

Chas. Ellis has returned from Austintown where he was the guest of Mrs. Carrie Weaver for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. White entertained at dinner Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Owen of Burton, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Owen, Miss Rachel John and attorney H. E. John of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Roof and daughter of Cortland were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Krause.

Mrs. Rachel Helwig of Cleveland is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thomas.

Mrs. Winifred Jones and daughter Laura have moved to Warren.

Miss Ella Lodwick of Youngstown spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Lodwick.

The Study club met Monday evening at the home of Miss Rachel John.

Several of the boys from Chillicothe spent Saturday with friends here.

Among them were Whitney Brill and Raymond Donagan.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Maurer and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams spent Sunday in Youngstown.

SHADY HOLLOW

Nov. 22—Ed. Wright and wife of Salem spent Sunday at Wm. Dietrich's.

Homer Bare and F. C. Heinzelman attended a sale of Holsteins near Salem, Wednesday.

Howard Kyle and Alvin Bare took a trip into Pennsylvania Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bieber spent Sunday at Obediah Rummel's in New Springfield.

Miss Mary Dushman and Miss Murrell Sweeney spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heinzelman.

Mrs. Jacob Zeigler and Mrs. Elias Bare spent Monday evening at Wm. Dietrich's.

F. C. Heinzelman and wife clerical a sale for N. Berman and I. Neimark at Perkins' Corners Thursday afternoon.